

16th Amendment (Income Tax)

“The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration”

- Ratified in 1913
- Gave congress power to collect income tax
- Supported by President Theodore Roosevelt & William Taft
- Led to the modern U.S. tax system

